ANCHORAGE, ALASKA - MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 2012

(Courtroom 2)

(On record at 1:23:37 p.m.)

THE CLERK: On record.

MS. LAMOUREUX: We're without counsel at this point.
He just stepped out briefly, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's assume they'll come back.
Okay.

(Whispered conversation)

THE COURT: You all ready to proceed? This is Cause
Number 11-28, United States versus --

THE CLERK: Judge, can you point that microphone towards you, please?

THE COURT: -- Karen Vernon and Lonnie Vernon. The defendants are present in court. Mr. Gardner is here with Mrs. Vernon, and Ms. Haden is here and Mr. Curtner with
Mr. Vernon. And the government is here in the person of --

THE CLERK: Judge, can you turn that microphone closer to you, please?

THE COURT: What?

THE CLERK: Can you turn that microphone closer to you, please?

THE COURT: The government is here in the person --

THE CLERK: Thank you.

THE COURT: -- of Ms. Lamoureux and Mr. Skrocki.

1 It's my understanding that this comes on for hearing today for
2 change of plea in accord with the terms of plea agreements; is
3 that correct?

4 MR. GARDNER: Yes, Your Honor.

5 MS. HADEN: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Now, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon, let me
7 explain about what we're going to do here. I have to take
8 testimony from you if you want to plead guilty in accord with 9 the terms of these plea agreements, and that means you must be 10 placed under oath before answering questions touching on your 11 plea. You should understand that you still have the right to 12 remain silent. If I ask you any questions that you do not
13 wish to answer or that you want to talk to your lawyers first
14 before answering, you have that right, and the main thing is 15 that you should not give me any false answers. In other
16 words, if you choose not to answer, that's your right.

17 You have the right to talk to your lawyer before
18 answering at any time, but under no circumstances should you
19 give me any false answer. If you should give me any false
20 answers, you can be separately prosecuted for perjury or 21 making a false statement under oath. Both of you understand
22 that?

23 (No audible responses)

24 THE COURT: Mr. Vernon? Okay.

25 And I'll ask that you both stand and raise your

1 right hands, and the clerk will administer the oath.

2 MR. L. VERNON: Before we do this, Your Honor, I'd
3 like to have a question and clarification on the record, too,
4 please.

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 MR. L. VERNON: My wife and I deposed this so-called 7 court system that we're in right now, and the agencies of that
8 one on the end over there, Sutherland, have taken all of our 9 records from our home. We deposed this court, all factions of 10 its peoples, its officers, and whatever it supposedly stands
11 for, all parts of this U.S. Government, this U.S.A., and all 12 this stuff, and we brought them in for clarification as to 13 jurisdiction. They did not show. Can you tell me why they 14 did not show?

15 THE COURT: I'm not sure what you're asking me,
16 Mr. Vernon.

17 MR. L. VERNON: I want to know who has jurisdiction
18 over Karen Vernon and Lonnie Vernon.

19 THE COURT: Well, the United States of America does.

20 MR. L. VERNON: Okay. Can you show me a contractual
21 agreement that my wife and I have with this country?

22 THE COURT: No.

23 MR. L. VERNON: Well, then what are we doing here?

24 THE COURT: Well, you know, Mr. Vernon, we can go
25 through a long discussion about this, but what you're doing

1 here is that you were within the United States, and under the
2 law, the prosecutor believed that you had committed criminal
3 acts in violation of the law. And so you were indicted by a
4 grand jury and charged and brought to court to answer for the 5 crimes that they allege you committed.

6 MR. L. VERNON: Can I see this prosecutor's
7 written -- writ of -- I want to know who he is. I want to 8 know what is his power of attorney over me. I want to see
9 this contractual agreement I have with him.

10 THE COURT: Well, you --

11 MR. L. VERNON: If I'm accused of anything, it's 12 accused -- I'm accused of one thing, exercising my First
13 Amendment rights to the max, and protecting my wife and my 14 life and my property as to my constitution. Apparently they 15 don't have one where they come from. I need to know who 16 they -- and where they reside from.

17 I have been set in this whole thing and denied my
18 due process. I have been threatened, I have been starved, I
19 have been deprived of all my medicines. I have been literally
20 shit on by these people of this Department of Corrections. I
21 want this on record so people know what this court system
22 isn't. If I have to, by God which I am son of and my wife is 23 daughter of, stand here and scream my lungs out for people to 24 hear me, maybe somebody should get it done, because we have 25 been deprived of all of our due process.

1           These paid pretenders are nothing more than
2 pretenders. They have not helped me one iota. I've sat here
3 and kept my mouth shut to play along with this little game so
4 they won't take my wife and -- well, I won't even go there.
5 But I want to know who these people are that say they have
6 jurisdiction over my wife and I to come steal our property
7 from us when we are no part of their people. Anyway, somebody
8 hear me (indiscernible).

9           THE COURT: Well, you know, Mr. Vernon, I understand
10 how you feel about those things. It -- your questions
11 indicate to me that you don't understand how our legal system
12 works in this system and how it goes along. And so the 13 question today is whether you want to enter a plea in accord
14 with the terms of your plea agreement.

15           MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I do want to enter. I'm going
16 to enter guilty, yes, I am.

17           THE COURT: Okay.

18           MR. L. VERNON: I'm going to enter guilty on my 19 First Amendment rights, caught using all the way to the hilt.

20           THE COURT: Well, all right. Let's go back to where 21 we were in the plea process, and that was that I had just
22 asked you to stand, both of you to stand and raise your right
23 hand. The clerk will administer the oaths.

24                   KAREN LOUISE VERNON, DEFENDANT, SWORN

25                   LONNIE GENE VERNON, DEFENDANT, SWORN

1 THE CLERK: Thank you. Please be seated.

2 THE COURT: I didn't hear everything you said. Did
3 you --

4 MR. L. VERNON: I said to God almighty, my father,
5 my wife, and all the free men on this land.

6 THE COURT: You -- and that was an affirmative
7 response to the oath, Mr. Vernon?

8 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, it would be.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 THE CLERK: Ma'am, starting with you, please state
11 and spell your full name.

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Somebody said something?

13 THE CLERK: Yes, I'm asking them to state and spell
14 their full name.

15 THE COURT: Mrs. Vernon.

16 MRS. K. VERNON: Karen Louise Vernon, K-a-r-e-n, L-
17 o-u-i-s-e, V-e-r-n-o-n.

18 THE CLERK: Thank you.

19 Sir, please state and spell your full name.

20 MR. L. VERNON: Is it really necessary?

21 THE CLERK: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Well, it's part of what we --

23 MR. L. VERNON: Okay, it's protocol. Lonnie Vernon,
24 Lonnie Gene Vernon, L-o-n-n-i-e, G-e-n-e, V-e-r-n-o-n.

25 THE CLERK: Thank you.

1                   EXAMINATION OF KAREN VERNON AND LONNIE VERNON

2                   THE COURT:   Okay.   And, Mrs. Vernon, how much formal 3 education have you had?

4                   MS. K. VERNON:   Twelve years.

5                   THE COURT:   And Mr. Vernon?

6                   MR. L. VERNON:   Twelve years, one year of college.

7                   THE COURT:   You can both read and write English with 8 no difficulty, then, I take it, is that right?

9                   MR. L. VERNON:   Yes.

10                  MS. K. VERNON:   Correct.

11                  THE COURT:   And have either of you been treated
12 recently for any mental illness or addiction to narcotics or 13 alcohol?

14                  MS. K. VERNON:   No, sir.

15                  MR. L. VERNON:   Absolutely not.

16                  THE COURT:   And are you -- either of you currently 17 under the influence of any medicines or drugs or anything that 18 would affect your ability to understand these proceedings?

19                  MS. K. VERNON:   No, sir.

20                  MR. L. VERNON:   No, I'm not.

21                  THE COURT:   And I understand that you have each
22 received a copy of the indictment that was charged against you
23 in this case that you've had the opportunity to discuss the 24 charges and these proposed plea agreements with your lawyers;
25 is that correct, Mrs. Vernon?

1 MS. K. VERNON: That's correct.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Vernon?

3 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I did. I read them over
4 myself.

5 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

6 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I did. I read them over
7 myself.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Now, it's necessary that I go
9 through the plea agreements with you to be sure that you
10 understand them and that I understand them as well. And 11 it's -- I have copies of the agreement that was filed before
12 being signed. Have there been any changes since Friday?

13 MS. LAMOUREUX: Your Honor, the only exchange is 14 that for Karen Vernon's plea agreement, there's one paragraph
15 in the factual basis which they have X'd out because 16 Ms. Vernon was not present during that conversation between 17 Mr. Vernon and the confidential informant. And I'm referring 18 to the plea agreement that was filed at Docket 120, and 19 specifically the paragraph that is now X'd out starts on the 20 bottom of page 9 to the top of page 10. And above page 10,
21 Mr. Gardner, I believe, hand wrote in "Karen Vernon was not 22 present for this conversation and cannot attest to its truth," 23 and then initialed it.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And that's all of that paragraph
25 beginning on February 4th, 2011, and going over to the next

1 page?

2 MS. LAMOUREUX: That's correct, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MS. LAMOUREUX: And if you want, we have an extra
5 copy of the document that was filed.

6 THE COURT: No. I have notes on this one, so I --

7 MS. LAMOUREUX: Okay.

8 THE COURT: All right. Now, in the beginning of the 9 plea agreements, it indicates that these plea agreements
10 contain the full agreement that you have between yourselves
11 and the United States and the agreements are limited to the 12 District of Alaska, not any other districts. Do both of you
13 understand that?

14 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, Your Honor.

15 MR. L. VERNON: I suppose.

16 THE COURT: And are there any other agreements
17 between you and the United States that are not covered in this 18 plea agreement, any other side agreements or anything like 19 that?

20 MS. K. VERNON: No, sir.

21 MR. L. VERNON: I don't believe so.

22 THE COURT: Now, it's my understanding that in 23 accord with these agreements that you each anticipate pleading
24 guilty to Count 1 of the indictment that charges you with 25 conspiracy to murder federal officials, and the government has

1 agreed to dismiss the remaining counts against you if you do
2 plead guilty under the terms of these plea agreements at the
3 time of sentencing, and also that the government agrees not to 4 prosecute either of you for any other offense related to the 5 events that resulted in the charge contained in the 6 indictment. And is that all correct?

7 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, sir.

8 MR. L. VERNON: That's correct.

9 THE COURT: And you've both agreed that this is a
10 so-called package deal, that the plea of each of you is 11 dependent upon the plea being entered by your spouse, is that 12 correct?

13 MS. K. VERNON: That's correct.

14 MR. L. VERNON: That's the way it was given to us.

15 THE COURT: And --

16 MR. L. VERNON: Excuse me, offered to us.

17 THE COURT: Pardon me?

18 MR. L. VERNON: That was the way it was offered to 19 us.

20 THE COURT: Well, is that the way you accepted it?

21 MR. L. VERNON: It's the way I accepted it.

22 THE COURT: And both parties here, the government
23 and the defendants, as part of this agreement have given up
24 any claim they may have for fees and costs from the other
25 party.

1           And in the plea agreement on -- beginning on page 4,
2 the elements of these charges, in Count 1 of each indictment
3 is -- have been set out. Are each of you familiar with the 4 elements of the charge of conspiracy to murder federal
5 officials as set forth in the indictment?

6           MS. LAMOUREUX: Your Honor, if I may clarify in the 7 record, for Karen Vernon, the elements are set forth on 8 pages 4 to 5 --

9           THE COURT: Oh.

10          MS. LAMOUREUX: -- but on Mr. Vernon's plea
11 agreement, the elements are on pages 5 to 6 in case --

12          THE COURT: Yeah, okay. I --

13          MS. LAMOUREUX: -- for their reference.

14          THE COURT: Right. The language, I believe, is the 15 same but it's on different pages in the --

16          MS. LAMOUREUX: For the elements, that is true.

17          THE COURT: Yeah. Yeah. And are both of you
18 familiar with the elements listed there of the offense of 19 which you anticipate pleading guilty?

20          MS. K. VERNON: Correct.

21          THE COURT: Mr. Vernon?

22          MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

23          THE COURT: Now, there are other things that apply
24 to both of you here that I want to talk with you together
25 about. You understand that there are statutory penalties that

1 apply to this charge, and the maximum possibility is life in
2 prison and a maximum fine of $250,000 in addition, as well as
3 a $100 special assessment and a maximum of five years of 4 supervised release. Do you both understand that those are the 5 maximum possible terms under Count 1?

6 MS. K. VERNON: Correct.

7 THE COURT: Do you understand that?

8 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, yes, I do.

9 MR. L. VERNON: That's what was presented to us.

10 THE COURT: All right. Now, there are other things
11 that can occur if you plead guilty here, in addition to any 12 penalty that the Court imposes. There can be an additional 13 fine to pay the cost to the government of imprisonment; there
14 can be interest on a fine, if any; and if you should violate
15 supervised release and be reimprisoned after a term of 16 imprisonment, you would not get credit for any supervised
17 release that you'd already served. And also restitution can 18 be ordered, although I understand in this case that there are 19 no requests for restitution, is that correct?

20 MS. LAMOUREUX: That's correct, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. And both of you understand
22 all those things?

23 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I do.

24 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

25 THE COURT: As part of this agreement, it indicates

1 that each of you have agreed to pay the special assessment at 2 the time of sentencing; that's $100.

3 And that you acknowledge here that there can be
4 other effects of a sentence and a plea to a felony that the
5 Court does not directly control. They're such things as Food
6 Stamps and other federal benefits that you can lose any right
7 to; you'll lose any right to own or possess firearms; lose the 8 right to vote, right to hold public office, and the right to 9 serve on a jury. Do you understand that there are those kinds
10 of other things that can occur if you plead guilty that are 11 not within the Court's direct control? You understand that?

12 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

13 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

14 THE COURT: And you understand that there are 15 Sentencing Guidelines that the Court must consider and those 16 are not mandatory but are part of what the Court considers at 17 sentencing, along with other statutory matters that the Court
18 looks at. And you understand that basically in sentencing,
19 the Court must consider the offense and the offender; that is,
20 the Court must consider you folks and your background and 21 history, and also must consider the offense for which you're 22 being sentenced. Do you understand those things?

23 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

24 MR. L. VERNON: Yep.

25 THE COURT: And you understand that the Court will

1 determine how the Guidelines apply at the time of sentencing
2 and the Court cannot determine in advance, until after a
3 presentence report is prepared and all concerned have a right
4 to input on the matter of the application of the Sentencing
5 Guidelines. Both of you understand that?

6 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, sir.

7 MR. L. VERNON: Yep.

8 THE COURT: And you have agreed here that the base
9 offense level is 33 for Count 1 under the Guidelines, and that
10 there should be a six-level enhancement under the Guidelines
11 which would make it a 39 level because of the officials' roles
12 in the tax case that's a part of the facts in this matter.

13 And you understand that there are other parts of the 14 Sentencing Guidelines, that there's no --

15 MR. L. VERNON: Excuse me, Your Honor. Could I
16 break in for just a second?

17 THE COURT: Pardon?

18 MR. L. VERNON: You said that was a fact of our tax
19 case, is part of our case?

20 THE COURT: The six-level enhancement is applicable,
21 and I'm quoting now from the plea agreement, because you
22 allegedly here "conspired to murder officials of the United 23 States because of the officials' roles in the civil tax case"
24 against you folks.

25 MR. L. VERNON: These would be the ones they have

1 not proved up their jurisdiction over us.

2 THE COURT: Well, I --

3 MR. L. VERNON: I mean, where is it? I've asked
4 for -- my wife and I have asked for two years for this before
5 we got into this mess, and these people brought this fraud
6 upon us and never proved up. Who are we supposed to believe?

7 THE COURT: Well --

8 MR. L. VERNON: I mean, you're -- I can tell you're 9 as honest as the day is long. I'm trying to be. These people
10 come to us and commit a fraud with using little worms like
11 that one on the end of the row over there, and his loose-
12 lippered little buddy from back East or wherever he's from,
13 playing his fancy-ass prosecutor crap. I don't know these 14 people. I don't get into this stuff. I've never had to deal
15 with it before, but when somebody doesn't prove who they are,
16 how the hell can you do anything?

17 THE COURT: Well --

18 MR. L. VERNON: Nobody brings anything forward.
19 We've got four boxes, those banker boxes full of paper we've 20 played with these guys, back and forth, back and forth.
21 Nobody proves their jurisdiction. How in the hell can we be 22 thrown away as trash or anything that's under the guise of 23 this United States or U.S.A. or whoever you people are? How 24 can we be trashed away?

25 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Vernon --

1 MR. L. VERNON: We don't -- we've not bothered no
2 one in our lives. Then this comes on us, and they come send
3 that little worm like that who brings his little buddy up
4 there with his machine gun in my driveway and unloads it one
5 night, and they want us -- other things, too, but I'm not
6 going to get into that crap. But I'd really like to know who
7 has jurisdiction over Lonnie and Karen Vernon.

8 THE COURT: Well, the United States has jurisdiction
9 over you, just like the United States has jurisdiction over me
10 and everybody else in this courtroom.

11 MR. L. VERNON: Okay. You work for them. Do I have 12 a contract with the United States? Karen?

13 THE COURT: No, none of us have --

14 MR. L. VERNON: Why not --

15 THE COURT: None of us have --

16 MR. L. VERNON: I'm not trying to make it go away
17 but I'm just trying to find out. I want to know why and who 18 they are.

19 THE COURT: None of us have contracts.

20 MR. L. VERNON: Okay.

21 THE COURT: It's --

22 MR. L. VERNON: And I don't, either. Okay.

23 THE COURT: It's --

24 MR. L. VERNON: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: It's part of being a citizen or being

1 a -- being in the country: You subject yourself to the 2 jurisdiction of the United States and of the Federal Courts.

3 MR. L. VERNON: Subject of? I thought we were born
4 a free man and woman on the land under our Constitution.

5 THE COURT: That's part of --

6 MR. L. VERNON: I'm not --

7 THE COURT: You know, I'm happy to do my best to 8 explain this to you. That's part of where a lot of people go
9 wrong because they think that they don't have to abide by 10 rules of government for some reason, because they're so-called
11 sovereign citizens or whatever. We're all in this together,
12 Mr. Vernon. We have the same obligation as citizens and we 13 have to obey the law, and we have to pay taxes, and it's the 14 way the system works. And you can't decide on your own that 15 you're not going to be part of what the government rules are.

16 MR. L. VERNON: Okay. I'm supposed to support a war
17 machine that goes around the world slaughtering people by the 18 millions every year. That's not me, Mister.

19 THE COURT: Well -- well --

20 MR. L. VERNON: I am not that kind of person.

21 THE COURT: Yeah.

22 MR. L. VERNON: My wife isn't either.

23 THE COURT: Well --

24 MR. L. VERNON: I'm not trying to make a big stink
25 here.

1 THE COURT: Yeah.

2 MR. L. VERNON: I want to find out these people are.
3 They --

4 THE COURT: A lot of --

5 MR. L. VERNON: On it goes, I'm sorry.

6 THE COURT: Yeah.

7 MR. L. VERNON: I'll let it go.

8 THE COURT: Well, a lot of people agree with you,
9 but you still have to obey and abide by the obligation of 10 citizenship, and if you don't like the way it's going, that's 11 why we have the whole system -- electoral system so that we 12 can change the things we don't like. But we do it by a
13 majority rule, so --

14 MR. L. VERNON: Okay.

15 THE COURT: -- there you are.

16 MR. L. VERNON: My wife and I filled out paperwork
17 to get out of this system two years on December 8th, 2010.

18 THE COURT: Well, you're --

19 MR. L. VERNON: Who threw that away?

20 THE COURT: You're still here.

21 MR. L. VERNON: Yeah.

22 THE COURT: Okay. I -- let's go to the acceptance
23 of responsibility, which is part of the Sentencing Guidelines.
24 It's my understanding that the government has agreed to 25 recommend acceptance of responsibility credit under the

1 Guidelines for Mrs. Vernon but not for Mr. Vernon and that
2 that's part of the agreement in the plea agreements. Do both
3 of you understand that?

4 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I do.

5 THE COURT: You understand that, Mr. Vernon?

6 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I do.

7 THE COURT: Now, you should understand that you're
8 not required to plead guilty here, you have a right to stand
9 on your pleas of not guilty and persist in those pleas. If 10 you plead not guilty and persist in those pleas, you have a
11 right to a speedy and public trial by jury.

12 And that would include a jury trial on issues
13 regarding guilt or lack of guilt and also a jury trial on any 14 facts that affect mandatory minimum and statutory penalties.
15 At any such trial you have the right to testify yourself if
16 you wish to or the right to remain silent. You have the right
17 to subpoena people to require them to attend court for you.
18 You have the right to confront the witnesses against you and 19 to cross-examine them before the jury.

20 And also a very important part of the trial process,
21 of course, is that you have the right to be presumed innocent
22 and that that presumption of innocence would continue
23 throughout the trial unless the jury finds unanimously to the 24 contrary. So all of you understand those things, each of you
25 understand those things?

1 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I do.

2 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, sir. I don't wish to be
3 witnessed [sic] again to the faction -- the fiction that I saw
4 in the facade from the last one.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Now, also you understand that you
6 have a right to counsel throughout, including at any trial,
7 and also that if you don't have the funds to employ a lawyer,
8 that the court would continue to provide a lawyer at public
9 expense for trial or any post-trial proceedings.

10 And you understand if you choose to remain silent at 11 trial, your silence could not be used against you.

12 You also would have the right to contest the 13 validity of any searches or the composition of the grand jury
14 and the petit jury, for that matter.

15 You understand that if you plead guilty here, you're 16 giving up all those rights that go along with a trial. You
17 understand that, Mrs. Vernon?

18 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I do.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Vernon?

20 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Now, also, in both plea agreements you
22 have agreed to give up the right to appeal any conviction
23 resulting from your plea and also any sentence that the Court
24 imposes provided it's -- any sentence is imposed in the --
25 within the terms of the plea agreements. And you also are

1 giving up your right to collaterally attack any conviction or
2 sentence through any writ or plea outside of the regular
3 appeal process, except that you can collaterally attack
4 conviction or sentence based on alleged ineffective assistance
5 of counsel that could not have been known by you up till this
6 time, or you can collaterally attack if there's a question as
7 to voluntariness of your guilty plea. Do both of you
8 understand that you're giving up your right to appeal and to 9 collaterally attack your conviction if you plead guilty here,
10 and your sentence if it's within the confines of the plea
11 agreement? Understand that?

12 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I do.

13 THE COURT: Mister --

14 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, that's what was presented to 15 us.

16 THE COURT: Now, in regard to Mr. Vernon, it's my 17 understanding that you're also agreeing here to give up your
18 right to appeal the conviction by jury in Cause Number 11-22
19 and the right to collaterally attack that conviction. And is 20 that part of your agreement here, Mr. Vernon?

21 MR. L. VERNON: I guess. It's not fair but that's 22 what I'm going to do.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Now, you understand that if for 24 any reason the Court would reject your guilty pleas or if for 25 any reason the guilty plea is set aside at any time, the

1 government can proceed to prosecute you on all charges that
2 were brought against you. Do you understand that,
3 Mrs. Vernon? If I go too fast or something, you tell me.

4 MS. K. VERNON: May I ask a question?

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 MS. K. VERNON: What does set aside mean? What do
7 you mean?

8 THE COURT: Well, if for any reason your
9 conviction -- if you plead guilty here and I find that you're 10 convicted and then some other court or some other event would 11 happen and the conviction would be set aside, then the 12 government can go ahead with full prosecution.

13 MS. K. VERNON: Oh, I understand.

14 THE COURT: Understand that?

15 MS. K. VERNON: Okay, yeah. Yes, I do.

16 THE COURT: You understand that, Mr. Vernon?

17 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I do.

18 THE COURT: And both of you have indicated toward
19 the end of the plea agreement that this -- these documents
20 contain all of the agreements made with you -- with the 21 government with the assistance of your lawyer and there are no
22 other promises of any kind, no outside agreements of any kind.
23 And you've also indicated here that you understand that no one
24 can guarantee the outcome of your case or what sentence the 25 Court would impose if you plead guilty. Do both of you

1 understand that?

2 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I do.

3 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Has anyone, including your lawyer, done
5 or said anything other than what's in the plea agreement to 6 indicate to you what your sentence would actually be?

7 MS. K. VERNON: No.

8 MR. L. VERNON: No, they haven't.

9 THE COURT: And both of you understand that if you
10 don't follow through with all the terms of the plea
11 agreements, that the government can withdraw from the 12 agreement and proceed to prosecute. Both of you understand
13 that?

14 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

15 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I do.

16 THE COURT: And have both of you read your plea
17 agreement carefully and gone over it carefully with your 18 lawyer?

19 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

20 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I did go over it.

21 THE COURT: And are you satisfied with the advice
22 and assistance that your lawyers have been able to give you up
23 to this time, Mrs. Vernon?

24 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Vernon?

1 MR. L. VERNON: Questionable, but yes.

2 THE COURT: Well, you understand that once you plead
3 guilty here, that you'll not be able to attack the work that
4 your lawyers did for you in some other forum at any other --
5 in any other way. You understand that?

6 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

7 MR. L. VERNON: Yep. Seems to be the game in this 8 country.

9 THE COURT: Now, let me talk with you, Mrs. Vernon,
10 about your plea agreement. You have indicated in the 11 agreement with the government that the applicable Sentencing
12 Guideline range is 188 to 235 months, and the government has 13 agreed to recommend a term of imprisonment of not more than 14 the low end of the Guidelines of 188 months. You understand
15 that to be part of your plea agreement?

16 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

17 THE COURT: And you understand that you and the 18 government are free to make sentencing recommendations
19 consistent with your plea agreement. You understand that?

20 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And you understand that you cannot --
22 once you enter into this plea, if I accept your plea, you
23 cannot withdraw from the plea just because you don't like your 24 sentence after that. You understand you're stuck with your 25 plea once you make it?

1 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I understand.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And you understand that you're
3 free to make a sentencing recommendation of anything,
4 including a recommendation below the Sentencing Guideline
5 range.

6 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And you understand here that part
8 of the agreement is that this is a global agreement, so to 9 speak, and that if Mr. Vernon does not enter a plea of guilty
10 in accord with the terms of his -- with his plea agreement or 11 if he tries to withdraw his plea prior to sentencing or does
12 withdraw it, then the whole thing is off and the government
13 can proceed to prosecute you on all charges. Do you
14 understand that?

15 MS. K. VERNON: That means we would go ahead with 16 trial, is that correct?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MS. K. VERNON: Okay. Yeah, I understand.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And, Mr. Gardner, are you
20 satisfied that Mrs. Vernon understands her rights and her
21 position in this case and that this plea agreement is 22 reasonable under all the circumstances?

23 MR. GARDNER: Based on the information I have at 24 this time, Your Honor, yes.

25 THE COURT: Now, Mrs. Vernon, you're charged in

1 Count 1 with the offense of conspiring to murder federal
2 officials, in violation of 18 United States Code Section 1117.
3 How do you plead to that charge as it's set forth in the 4 indictment?

5 MS. K. VERNON: I plead guilty, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And, Mrs. Vernon, if I look at page 5 of 7 the plea agreement, under the heading Factual Basis -- do you
8 have that in front of you?

9 MS. K. VERNON: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And that Factual Basis continues over to 11 the top of page 9 of your plea agreement.

12 MS. LAMOUREUX: To page 13.

13 THE COURT: Oh, you're right. It does go over to 14 page 13. And that one portion on page -- beginning on page 9
15 was stricken. Have you carefully read all of that factual
16 basis?

17 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I have.

18 THE COURT: And is it all true and correct?

19 (Pause)

20 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, sir.

21 THE COURT: And are you asking now that I adopt the 22 factual basis set forth in your plea agreement as your 23 testimony in this case?

24 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: And is there anything else that I should

1 know about this matter before ruling on Mrs. Vernon's plea?

2 MS. LAMOUREUX: Your Honor, there is one other
3 paragraph.

4 THE COURT: Yeah.

5 MS. LAMOUREUX: On page 17 of Ms. Vernon's plea
6 agreement during -- in the sentencing agreement section, there
7 is a paragraph regarding the factual basis and the use of it
8 after this point.

9 THE COURT: I'm sorry. What did I miss? I don't
10 know what you're talking about, I'm afraid.

11 MS. LAMOUREUX: On page 17, the parties' agreement
12 is that if the defendant withdraws her plea prior to 13 sentencing or anytime after the Court accepts the plea
14 agreement and sentences her consistent with its terms, she
15 agrees the facts that she admits in the factual basis --

16 THE COURT: Oh, yeah.

17 MS. LAMOUREUX: -- portion of this agreement shall 18 be admitted as stipulations in any trial or sentencing that 19 may follow.

20 THE COURT: Right. Do you understand that,
21 Mrs. Vernon?

22 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, I do.

23 THE COURT: And that is part of your agreement, is
24 that correct?

25 MS. K. VERNON: Correct.

1           THE COURT: All right. Okay. And, Mr. Vernon, your
2 plea agreement is a little bit different. And it's my
3 understanding that you're agreeing that you be sentenced under
4 Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C) that you be sentenced
5 to a term of imprisonment of between 262 and 327 months
6 followed by five years of supervised release. And that's part
7 of your agreement?

8           MR. L. VERNON: That's what they put down.

9           THE COURT: No, I'm asking you if it's part of your 10 agreement.

11          MR. L. VERNON: I'm not up on the facts of all these 12 limits, but that's part of the agreement.

13          THE COURT: And your -- part of your agreement is 14 that your sentence in this case and in the other case, 11-22,
15 will be between 262 and 327 months in prison totally, and that
16 you will be sentenced under both cause numbers for both cases
17 to one sentence of between 262 and 327 months. That all part
18 of your agreement?

19          MR. L. VERNON: That's what's in it.

20          THE COURT: Well, you know I'm asking you --

21          MR. L. VERNON: Yes, that's what's in it, yes.

22          THE COURT: And you also have agreed here to -- that 23 you can make whatever sentencing recommendations you want to,
24 consistent with the agreement, and you have agreed here to 25 give up your right to appeal your conviction and sentence

1 under this agreement under this cause number and also give up
2 your right to appeal or collaterally attack your conviction
3 under Cause Number 11-22. Is that all part of your agreement?

4 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, that's part of my agreement.

5 THE COURT: And there is the exception regarding
6 ineffective assistance of counsel or voluntariness of plea
7 that may give you a right to collaterally attack your 8 conviction or sentence. You understand all that?

9 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I do.

10 THE COURT: And part of your agreement under the 11 rule is that the Court must either accept the sentence set
12 forth between 262 and 327 months' imprisonment, or you may 13 withdraw from the plea agreement if the Court does not
14 sentence you within that framework. Is that right, that's 15 part of your agreement?

16 MR. L. VERNON: That's what it says, yes.

17 THE COURT: But if the Court would sentence you for 18 more than 327 months, you could withdraw from the plea
19 agreement, and if the Court sentences you to less than 262
20 months' imprisonment, the government could withdraw from the 21 agreement. You understand those conditions in the agreement?

22 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

23 THE COURT: And it is your intent that your
24 agreement here be part of both Cause Numbers 11-22 and 11-28
25 and that it be a global agreement with your wife's plea. Is

1 that also correct?

2 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, that's correct.

3 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Vernon -- well, let me ask
4 Ms. Haden next, I guess.

5 Ms. Haden, do you believe that Mr. Vernon fully 6 understands his rights and his position in the matter and that
7 this agreement is fair and reasonable if he chooses to enter
8 into it?

9 MS. HADEN: Yes, Your Honor. At this time, I do.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything else that I
11 ought to know about this before I ask for his plea? Did I
12 miss anything here?

13 MS. LAMOUREUX: The same language as I pointed out
14 in Mrs. Vernon's plea agreement. In this sentencing agreement 15 section --

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 MS. LAMOUREUX: -- for Mr. Vernon's plea agreement
18 at Docket 118, it's set forth on page 18 of his plea
19 agreement, and it's that last paragraph there.

20 THE COURT: And that agreement, Mr. Vernon, is that 21 if you should withdraw your plea at any time, your -- the 22 factual basis for your plea as set forth in the plea agreement
23 could be used against you in the trial that would come up if 24 you withdraw from the plea agreement. Do you understand that?

25 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I do.

1 THE COURT: Does that cover that? I think it does.

2 MS. LAMOUREUX: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Yeah, okay. Okay. Now, Mr. Vernon,
4 you're charged in Count 1 with crime of conspiracy to murder
5 federal officials, in violation of 18 United States Code
6 Section 1117. How do you plead to that charge as it's set
7 forth in the indictment?

8 MR. L. VERNON: Guilty to exercising my First
9 Amendment rights with no action.

10 THE COURT: Well, are you pleading guilty to the 11 offense as it's set forth in the indictment?

12 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

13 THE COURT: And, Mr. Vernon, also I'll refer you to 14 the factual basis for the plea that's set forth in the plea
15 agreement, on page -- beginning on page 6 and going over to 16 page --

17 MS. LAMOUREUX: Fourteen.

18 THE COURT: -- 14. Have you read all of that 19 carefully?

20 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I have.

21 THE COURT: And is it all true and correct?

22 MR. L. VERNON: Yes, I believe it is.

23 THE COURT: And are you asking now that I accept
24 that written material as your testimony in this case in 25 support of your plea?

1 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

2 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything else
3 before I rule on the pleas, counsel, that I should cover?

4 MS. LAMOUREUX: Not from the government, Your Honor.

5 MR. GARDNER: No, Your Honor.

6 MS. HADEN: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Have the plea agreements been signed
8 and -- by all parties and filed?

9 MS. LAMOUREUX: Yes, Your Honor. They were filed
10 today as Dockets 118 and 120.

11 THE COURT: All right. Okay.

12 THE CLERK: And, Judge, just so it's clear, they're 13 actually pleading to the first superseding indictment rather 14 than the indictment?

15 MS. LAMOUREUX: That's --

16 THE CLERK: First?

17 MS. LAMOUREUX: First.

18 THE CLERK: First superseding?

19 THE COURT: Yes. And in referring to the 20 indictment, I was referring to the first superseding
21 indictment and Count 1 thereof. Do you understand that,
22 Mrs. Vernon?

23 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, that's what my paperwork shows.

24 THE COURT: And Mr. Vernon? Mr. Vernon, you
25 understand that? I was referring -- when I referred to the

1 indictment, I was referring to the Count 1 of the first
2 superseding indictment.

3 MR. L. VERNON: Okay.

4 THE COURT: All right. Well, it appears to me that 5 both defendants are competent and capable of entering an
6 informed plea. They understand the nature of the charges and 7 the consequences of their plea. There's a knowing and 8 voluntary basis presented by the defendants which contains 9 each of the essential elements of the offense charged in 10 Count 1 of the superseding indictment. The pleas are knowing
11 and voluntary and they should be accepted, and so I will now
12 make a finding that both parties are guilty of Count 1 of the 13 superseding indictment and the plea agreements appear at this 14 point to me to be fair and reasonable under all the 15 circumstances.

16 The next thing we will do is set sentencing. And I
17 believe a probation officer is present, yeah. How much time
18 are you looking at typically?

19 PROBATION OFFICER: Oh, 72 days from today's date,
20 Your Honor, is -- will be November 7th. That would be about 21 the approximate time we'll be looking at.

22 THE COURT: November 7th?

23 PROBATION OFFICER: Correct, sir.

24 THE COURT: When did we set the Cox sentencing,
25 counsel? We reset that.

1 MR. SKROCKI: The 13th or 14th, Your Honor, I
2 believe.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. SKROCKI: I have it for the 13th.

5 THE COURT: What day of the week is the 13th?

6 MR. SKROCKI: That's a Tuesday, Judge.

7 THE COURT: I just --

8 THE CLERK: Judge, that's set for the 13th at 9:30.

9 THE COURT: Can we set this for either the 12th or 10 the 14th? I'm just --

11 MS. LAMOUREUX: That's fine with the government,
12 Your Honor.

13 MR. GARDNER: That's fine, Your Honor.

14 MS. HADEN: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: 14 November at 9:30.

16 Now, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon, I'm setting sentencing as 17 indicated on 14 November at 9:30 in the morning. There
18 sometimes are changes in those dates as things get ready. The 19 order that I'm signing also orders a presentence report, and 20 the Probation Office will prepare such a report and present it
21 to the Court. The report will advise the Court on your 22 history and background and on how the Guidelines apply and 23 will make recommendations to the Court as to sentencing.

24 You'll have the opportunity to see that report well
25 before sentencing and will have the opportunity to attack any

1 information in the report that is not accurate. And you'll
2 have a chance to not only read that but to go over it with
3 your lawyer, and we want to be sure that that's all accurate
4 information when we get to the point of sentencing.

5 All right. Now, the probation officer will want to 6 talk to you about the preparation of the presentence report.
7 You should cooperate with the probation officer that -- in
8 doing that, but you should understand you still have the right
9 to remain silent. You're not required to answer his questions
10 or her questions, whoever prepares it. But if it should come
11 up that he asks you questions in regard to the presentence
12 report that you think you should not answer or have a question
13 about whether you should answer, you should talk with your 14 lawyer about that right away because that can affect how the 15 presentence report is put together and what the recommendation
16 of the probation officer will be. So you do have that right,
17 but you should be sure if you choose to exercise it that you
18 discuss that with your lawyers at that time that that should 19 come up.

20 Okay. Now, do both of you understand all this?

21 MS. K. VERNON: Yes, Your Honor.

22 MR. L. VERNON: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. The trial will be stricken, and 24 the sentencing in -- of Mr. Vernon in Cause Number 11-22 will 25 be set over to the same time, 14 November.

6 THE COURT: It's moot.

10 (Proceedings concluded at 2:17:30 p.m.)

electronic sound recording of the proceedings in the above-
